PROFILE

More than a decade of expertise

AASTHA INFRA is one of the prime construction development companies in Chennai. Ever since its inception in 2000 as a developer, it has been creating the buildings and apartments that people lovingly call home! With more than a decade of experience, Aastha Infra has been marching steadfast, building trust brick by brick with professional expertise.

In all its years of being in business, Careful and responsible planning and execution have guided its practice. Having evolved from its very modest beginnings, today Aastha Infra has become brand name that has become a synonym of trust, transparency and reliability with a perfect blend of professional architects, engineers, suppliers and workers who are loyal in channeling their expertise to the one single goal of the organization to accomplish the very best and give you the best.

A Legacy of Honesty

Surviving and succeeding in the construction industry is not all about construction of complexes or edifices. And because we at Aastha Infra understand this, we strive to build and maintain a reputation for excellence. The reputation Aastha Infra has earned over the past decade is nothing less than one of complete transparency, entrepreneurial intelligence and dedicated service. With a strong history marked by continuity and credibility, Aastha Infra has a legacy to be proud of.

Our Vision

- To build distinctive structures that will truly prosper our clients.
- To inculcate high performance culture.
- To become the most trusted Civil Engineering Contractor in South India..

Core Values

When it comes to construction, Aastha Infra offers the finest quality at the most competitive prices. There is absolutely no compromise when it comes to design and quality with efficient space concepts. And because we opt for the best, all our constructions are 'A Grade', right from the smallest detail to the biggest. We strongly believe it is ultimately the quality and professionalism that seals the deal and has made us achieve great success time and again.

After all commitment, Professionalism, Teamwork and Customer Service are the core principles above all which forms the basis for the way in which we do business day after day.

Concrete Balance

All Aastha Infra's building have a perfect balance between the exterior and interior. With the view of creating spaces that are functional and efficient, Aastha Infra has earned a reputation of building homes that are sound, safe and efficient with optimal ventilation taking maximum advantage of nature's gift of sun, air and wind, while also paying great attention to the interiors that ensures a striking balance between exterior and interior.

Symbol of Prosperity

Perhaps it would be no exaggeration to state that the association with Aastha Infra will truly prove to be a symbol of prosperity. Having built its reputation as a company that is honest and responsive with all its customers and its customers- care know- how where to direct owner-to-customer service is not just an exception but the rule. And because the company has succeeded time and again when it comes to adhering to work ethics and delivering priceless homes to its valued customers who comes back to us to buy a second and third home! Prosperity Indeed!

Future Plans

At Aastha Infra, we seek infinite opportunities and possibilities. We look forward to becoming a key developer in developing the new face of Chennai. We have approximately completed 1.2 million sq.ft. and there are many more projects in the pipeline under various stages of discussion and planning for development.

Our strategy is to build buildings that will truly live to tell the tale of sculptural elegance designed in accordance with the core Aastha Infra's Values of aesthetics, simplicity and consistency.
